

Webinar: How to Stay Connected and Keep Seniors Safe During COVID-19

Join us on July 29, 2020, to hear Dr. Edith Calamia, Chief Medical Officer for Magellan Complete Care, share insights on staying in touch with elderly loved ones, recognizing when help may be needed and preparing for end-of-life care and loss.

Those who are 65 or older, or who live in assisted living or senior facilities, are considered high-risk for contracting COVID-19. For most families, keeping senior loved ones safe from infection means forgoing in-person visits and finding other ways to create connection. Attend this webinar, brought to you by Magellan Healthcare, to learn more about you can help your loved ones during this time.

Date: Wednesday, July 29, 2020

Time: 1:00 – 2:00 p.m. Eastern

Register here: www.magellanhealthcare.com/covid-19-2/covid-19/webinars/

Topic areas:

- Learn strategies for communicating with loved ones living at home or in long-term care facilities
- Recognize when professional help may be needed
- Prepare for end-of-life care and loss
- Q&A

Speaker:

Dr. Edith Calamia, D.O., M.P.H.
Chief Medical Officer
Magellan Complete Care

Space is limited!* Register today!

*Attendance is limited to 1,000 spots. Please log in early on the day of the event. If you can't make it for the live webinar, visit the Magellan COVID-19 webinars page, where we will post the recording: www.magellanhealthcare.com/covid-19-2/covid-19/webinars/